Bad Boys Bail Bonds- Summit County, Utah

Our legal system allows accused persons to get on with their lives pending trial. A bail bond offers a financial guarantee that the defendant will be present in court throughout the trial. All citizens have a right to reasonable bail according to the Eighth Amendment.

How is a Bail Bond Determined in Summit County?

After an arrest, the accused is arraigned in court for a bail hearing. A judge listens to arguments from both the plaintiff and the defendant parties. Based on the arguments, the severity of the alleged crime, the risk posed by the defendant, and other factors, the judge will then set an appropriate amount of bail.

To be set free, the defendant has to post bail. Occasionally, bail amounts can be very high, making it impossible to pay the full amount. That's where Bad Boys Bail Bonds steps in to help you. We post the bail to the court and become liable if the accused person misses trial.

Getting Bail in Park City, Utah in Just 3 Easy Steps

To get someone released with a bail bond awaiting trial, work with the most efficient and reliable Summit County bail bonds company Utah offers. We're here to help you through each step of our easy bail bond process in Park City. We will provide you with all the information you need to have yourself or your loved one released from the Summit County jail as quickly as possible. Your part of the bail bond process is just these 3 easy steps:

1.

1. Call the bail bond company: Call us at Bad Boys Bail Bonds in Park City, UT at (801) 895-4014 to start the bail bond process. Provide us with this information:

- Defendant's Name
- Date of Birth
- Location of Arrest

2. Meet the bondsman at the jail: our contract bail bond agent at the Summit County Jail in Park City, to sign the bond agreement, bring your payment of 10% of the bail amount set by the court, and pick up your loved one from the jail. You must be at least 18 years old to sign the bond contract and pay the bond fee.

3. Take your loved one with you from the jail: After the bail is officially posted, it can take from 2 to 8 hours for your loved one to be released from the jail in Park City. The speed of the final step of the process depends on how busy the jail staff is on any given day.

While it can be stressful to have a loved one in jail, we are here to make this process easier. Once your loved one is released, you can continue with the defense process.

Why Use Bad Boys Bail Bonds?

We know how to find important information when in dire need. Our expertise and experience in determining location and booking status play a key role in expediting the bond process. Since a bail bond is just 10% of the amount set by the court, the defendant pays a smaller amount, gets out of jail, and waits for trial. For instance, if the bail is $20,000, you pay approximately $2,000.

Without an agent, someone has to pay the full amount set by the court to be released. Moreover, whoever pays the bail, will be held responsible for the full amount if the defendant misses trial.
